

NAME OF ACTIVITY: Abuse of Children Wheel

Possible Uses: Facilitate conversation regarding the comparison of the Power and Control Wheel for adults and how the Abuse of children wheel is based on the same concept. Discuss how it illustrates the many ways children may be abused when living in a home where domestic violence is present.

Target Audience: Any professional who works with domestic violence cases.

Time: 15 Minutes

Objectives: Upon completion of this activity, participants will be able to:

- Identify how the Power and Control wheel and Abuse of Children Wheel have many comparisons in Domestic Violence.
- Explore practices to become more trauma informed regarding the power and control wheels for Abuse on children in domestic violence.

Key Terms & Power and control Wheel
Abuse of Children Wheel

Concepts:

Equipment or

Materials Needed: Online: Break out rooms
White Board or Flip Charts

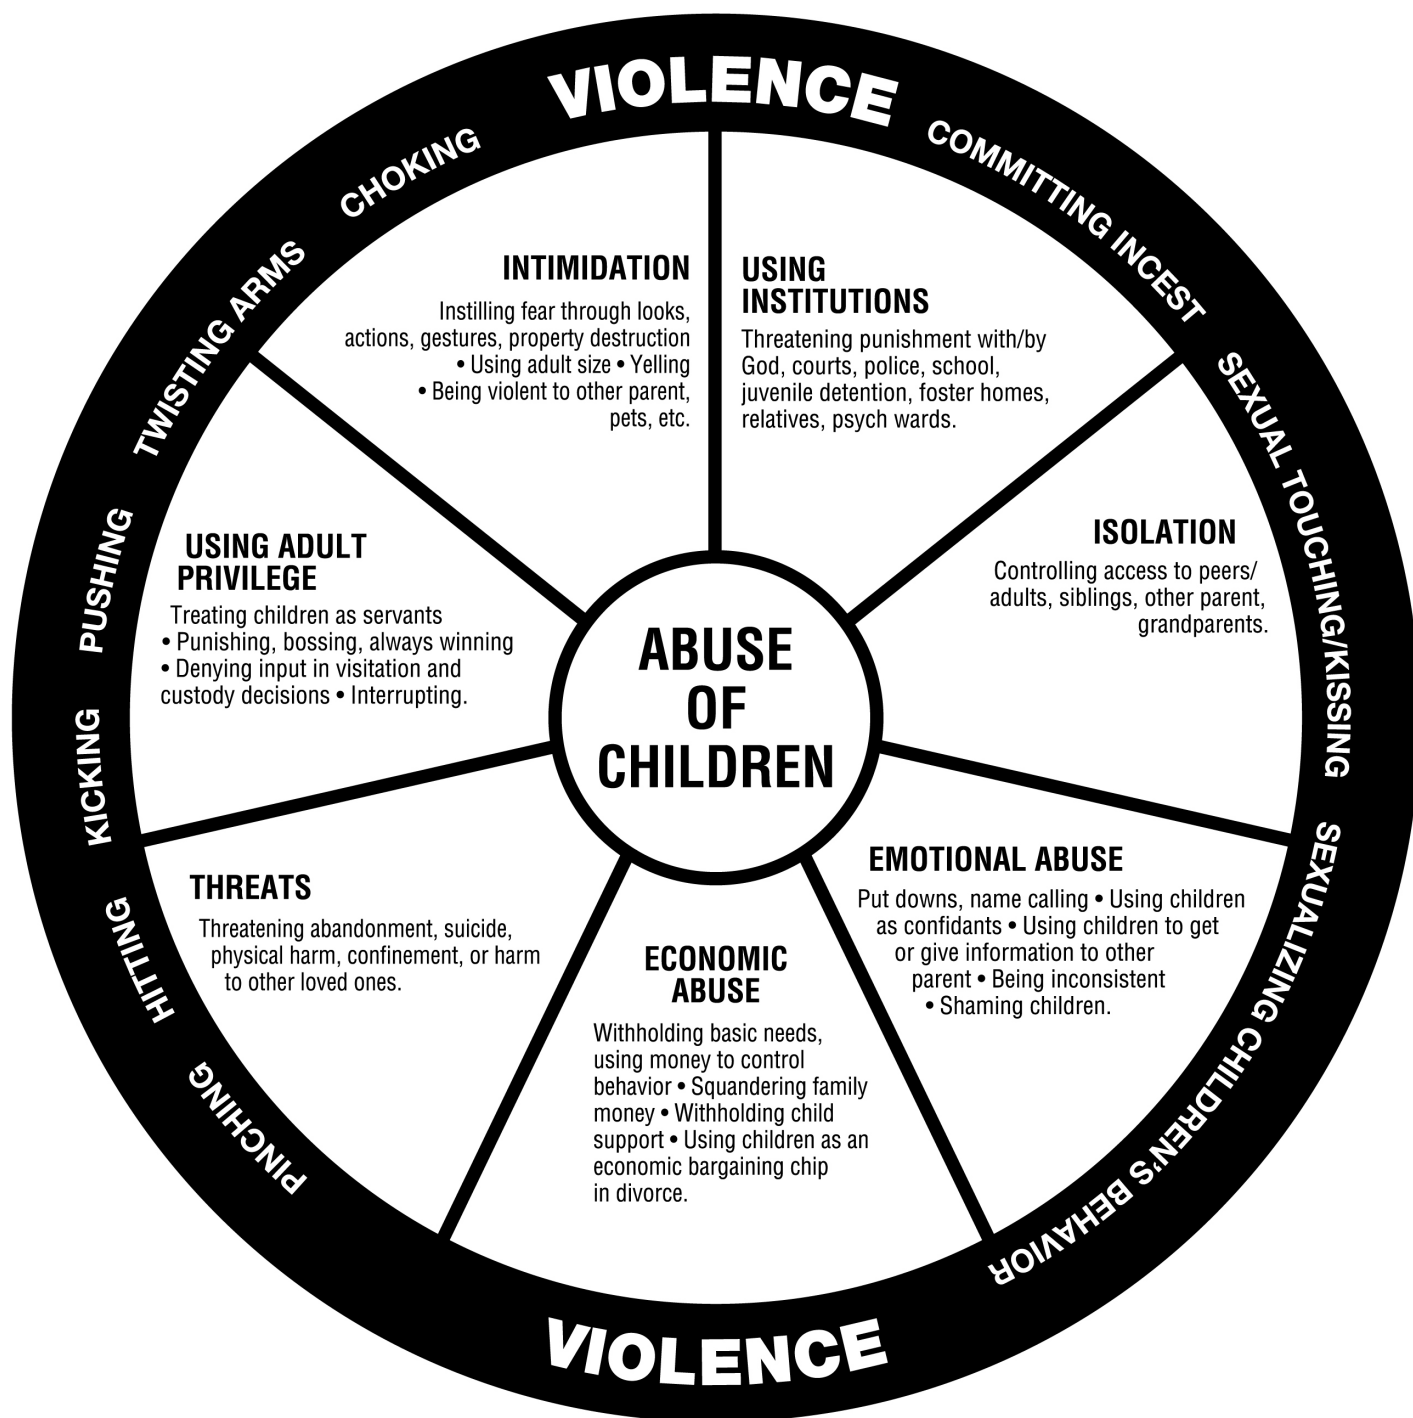

Preparation: N/A

Instructions: 1. Break into small groups. Each participant group is given both, Power and control wheel and Abuse of Children wheel. Instruct groups to compare the similarities they find within each category of the wheels.

2. Challenge the group to see how we can use a more trauma informed approach. How could participants use these Trauma informed approaches to each category in the wheels?
3. Bring the small groups back together and have each group report out.
4. Use flipchart or whiteboard to write the groups responses.

NOTE:

If virtual learning use chat and have a facilitator monitoring the chats.

DOMESTIC ABUSE INTERVENTION PROJECT

202 East Superior Street
Duluth, Minnesota 55802
218-722-2781
www.duluth-model.org