

Clove
ALLIANCE

COMBATting FAMILIAL TRAFFICKING: EFFECTIVE INTERVENTION AND PREVENTION

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 24TH | 10:00 AM- 12:00 PM

Kankakee Community College
100 College Drive, Kankakee

Ideal for: any professionals, service providers, and community members

Deepen your understanding of familial trafficking and equip yourself with practical tools for intervention and prevention. This interactive and engaging workshop goes beyond definitions and statistics, incorporating real-life case studies and examples. Together, we will explore actionable and empowering solutions to become more aware and responsive to this prevalent type of trafficking.

REGISTRATION FEE: $10
CEU AND PD HOURS PROVIDED

To register, visit
continuinged.kcc.edu//
or use the QR code!

Alicia Ley

Presenter

This workshop will be facilitated by Alicia Ley. Alicia serves as the Fellowship Program Manager at Survivor Alliance. Alicia has spent the last decade advocating and building holistic, trauma-applied spaces to support survivors as they journey toward becoming their whole healthy selves. It is these face-to-face relationships that fuel her fiery passion to address systemic injustices and fight for economic equity. Alicia is fervent about bringing survivors and allies together in order to provide empowering solutions in the anti-trafficking sector.

For more info, connect with us:

clovealliance.org/events

outreach@clovealliance.org

Sponsored by: Clove Alliance and Kankakee Community College